ANNOUNCEMENTS...

1) Climate Sunday – 29 August

The UK will host the 26th UN Climate Change Conference of the Parties (COP26) in Glasgow on 31 October – 12 November. Climate Sunday, an initiative by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland (CTBI), is calling on local churches to have a special climate-focused Service and ours will be on Sunday, 29 August.

Eco-Congregation Scotland chairperson Mary Sweetland says

"We need to take action as Christians who care for God's creation, tackling the climate emergency with urgency now and for future generations. When we welcome thousands from around the world, online or in person to COP26, we can all demonstrate that we are taking action and leading by example in our own church and across the country."

"We all share a unique opportunity this year for transformational change, taking practical steps to change our own behaviour and calling on governments to agree global action when they gather in Glasgow. Climate Sunday helps link this directly with our spiritual life, focussing local churches on the environment in worship, prayer and action."

Climate Sunday culminates with a major online service in Glasgow on Sunday 5th September 2021, the first Sunday in Creation Time, to share church commitments across the nations and pray for bold action with courageous leadership at the conference.

2) Message about Life and Work magazine
